

Dr. Paul Bendor-Samuel

International Director Interserve International, UK

AWR-subscriber

Sir,

I wish to write to thank you as one of your subscribers for some time now. The job you are doing is brilliant and the service you provide essential. I have worked for many years in the Arab world. Despite this I have found my insight and understanding of current affairs and religious discourse has in the Arab world has increased tremendously since getting your review. Most thought of this kind is written in Arabic and remains inaccessible to most of us. In addition, we know that Egypt has a key role in shaping the culture and thinking of the Arab world as a whole and therefore this makes your review even more significant. I use it not only to stay informed but to deepen my understanding of what the Arab world is thinking. I have used your material in research for talks that I have given.

Thank you for this tremendous service. May you know God's blessings as you serve Him.