Dear Drs. Cornelis Hulsman,

It was a big pleasure for me to visit your center. I highly appreciate your initiative to build a "bridge" which facilitates the dialogue between the two sides, the Arab world and the West, to live in peace without extremism and violence. I am united with you in the profound belief in the necessity of communication between various human cultures, through which the true concepts of a shared life, complete human coexistence and ways of acceptance become deeply rooted.

The commitment you have demonstrated during all these years merits the highest praise.

I sincerely appreciate your organization, Drs. Hulsman, and I hope that your new website will contribute to better mutual intercultural understanding.

Sincerely yours,

Ahmad Usāma
